"Spreading true knowledge of Islam"

QURANIC VERSE

"Yes, no doubt, My Revelations came to you. So you rejected them and showed arrogance and became one of the disbelievers."

(Sura Az-Zumar, Verse # 59)

"And (also recall the time) when We commanded the angels: 'Prostrate yourselves before Adam.' Then they all prostrated themselves to Adam except Iblis (Satan). He refused and showed arrogance and (consequently) became one of the disbelievers."

(Sura Baqarah, Verse # 34)

HADITH NABVI S.A.W

The Prophet (saw) said: "He will never enter paradise, the one who has one atom of Takabbur."

(Saheeh Muslim)

"Three people, Allah will not speak to them on the day of judgement, and he will not show them any mercy or any reference, and give them a painful torment, the old man who commits zina, and a leader who is a liar, and a poor man who is arrogant."

(Saheeh Muslim)

SAYINGS OF SAHABA R.A.

"If you want to remove evil from the minds of others then first give up evil intentions yourself. Whoever wants to be a leader should educate himself before educating others. Before preaching to others he should first practice himself. Whoever educates himself and improves his own morals is superior to the man who tries to teach and train others."

(Hazrat Ali Murtaza R.A)

NEWS & UPDATES ● M-R welcomed the presence of Hazrat Allama Maqsood Ahmed Qadri "Khateeb-e-Azam at Jamia-e-Masjid Daata Ganj Baksh, Lahore" on the Monthly Mehfil-e-Milaad of JUNE 2009. He was very pleased with the efforts of M-R and the way they were spreading Ishq-e-Rasool (S.A.W). He also mentioned that he has never experienced a Mehfil so pure and full of love of Prophet (S.A.W) and made special DUA. Video and Pictures can be viewed on www.m-r.org.uk

Teachings of HAZRAT SYEDNA PIR MEHER ALI SHAH (R.A):

“Pride and conceit destroys all good deeds.”

•A dervish is one who opposes whatever his baser self (Nafs-e-Ammara) impels him to do.”

•As far as possible, one should endure the unkindness of others with patience, and leave revenge and retribution to Allah.”

•The (true) dervish considers every one else better than him self; he tries to rectify his own faults instead of finding faults with others.”

•Ibadat (or devotion) consists of submission without argument, acceptance without dissent, patience without complaint, faith without uncertainty, perception without concealment, and attention without diversion.”

WHAT IS ARROGANCE?

Arrogance is a blameworthy characteristic which is the main feature of Iblees and his cohorts in this world. Reason for mentioning Iblees here is that he is the first one who showed arrogance towards Allah (SWT) and His creation, when Allah (SWT) commanded him to prostrate to Adam (AS), he refused with arrogance and said:

“I am better than him (Adam), You created me from fire, and him (Adam) You created from clay.” [Al-Araf V.12]

So whoever wants to be arrogant should realise that he is acquiring a characteristic of Iblees, the devil.

Moreover, arrogance may be the cause of a person being deprived of Paradise and may mean that the Lord of Glory will not even look at him, as it says in the following hadith: It was narrated that ‘Abd-Allaah ibn ‘Umar (may Allaah be pleased with him) said:

The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: “Whoever lets his garment drag along the ground out of pride, Allah will not look at him on the Day of Resurrection.” Abu Bakr (RA) said: “Sometimes my garment slips down on one side, unless I pay attention to it.” The Messenger of Allah (S.A.W) said, “You are not doing that out of pride.” Al-Bukhari, 3465

Everyone who tries to be arrogant and put himself above others, Allah (SWT) will bring him down among the lowest of the low, and will humiliate him, because he is going against reality, so Allah (SWT) will punish him by thwarting his aims; the punishment is to fit the crime.

It was narrated from ‘Amr ibn Shu‘ayb via his father and grandfather that the Prophet (S.A.W) said: “On the Day of Resurrection, the arrogant will be gathered like ants in the form of men. Humiliation will overwhelm them from all sides. They will be driven to a prison in Hell called Bawlas, with the hottest fire rising over them, and they will be given to drink of the juice of the inhabitants of Hell, which is teenat al-khabaal.” Tirmidhi, 2492

Arrogance is of several types, including the following:

1 – When a person does not accept the truth and produces false arguments against it, as we have mentioned in the hadith of ‘Abd-Allah ibn Mas‘ood (RA), “Arrogance means rejecting the truth and looking down on people.”

2 – When a person admires himself for his beauty or handsomeness, or the fineness of his food or clothing, so he feels proud and arrogant and feels superior to people.

Arrogance leads to all sins, even Racism is due to arrogance. So let’s look at the remedies:

Think of yourself as being just like other people and realise that they are like you, they were born from a mother and a father just as you were. One who has more Taqwa is superior to the other as Allah (SWT) says:

“Verily, the most honourable of you with Allah is that (believer) who has At-Taqla i.e. he is one of the Muttaqoon (the pious)” [al-Hujuraat V.13]

So arrogance should not be due to our colour, height, strength as it is mentioned in Al-Quran:

“And do not walk arrogantly on earth. Certainly you cannot cleave the earth (with the force of your arrogance), nor can you reach the mountains in height. (You will remain what you are.)” [al-Isra’ V.37]

Nor should we feel proud of our cast or our wealth as the Al-Quran mentions:

“And turn not your face away from men with pride, nor walk in insolence through the earth. Verily, Allah likes not any arrogant boaster. And be moderate (or show no insolence) in your walking, and lower your voice. Verily, the harshest of all voices is the braying of the donkey” [Al-Luqmaan 18-19]

Another remedy for arrogance is for a person to realise that on the Day of Resurrection he will be gathered in a small form like an ant which will be trampled underfoot. Arrogant people are hated by other people just as they are hated by Allah (SWT); people love humble, tolerant and gentle people, and they hate those who are harsh and cruel to people.

We should look at the best example, our beloved Prophet (S.A.W) who was the most beloved by Allah (SWT), had the greatest authority a human could possibly think off, had miracles, the best family, yet he never showed arrogance towards other.

We ask Allah (SWT) to rid us all of arrogance and make us humble and true lovers of his beloved Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W).

Rights of Children: O ye who believe! save yourselves and your families from a Fire whose fuel is Men and Stones. "At-Tahrim 66:6"

Children are one of the joys of life that we ask Allah (swt) to grant us, they are the delight of our hearts in their childhood, our companions and comfort in our old age, and the only source of "dua" in our graves. The adult of today was the child of yesterday, and the child of today is the adult of tomorrow. In order for children to fulfill their responsibilities towards their parents, they must first get their rights from them.

Parents should teach their children all about Islam, show them how to worship Allah (swt) and develop the love of Holy Prophet (s.a.w). They should also guide them to the stairways to Paradise, and protect them from falling into Hellfire.

Before Birth: The pregnant or nursing mother should take care of her health and her nutrition so that she can pass good health to her child. She has been given the license to break the obligatory fast of Ramadan if the fasting may cause her or the baby any harm.

After Birth: Children have all of their rights automatically in effect: feeding, clothing, health care, even the celebration of birth (Aqeeqah), Allah (swt) says in the Qur'an what means: [Mothers should feed their children for two whole years (that is) for those who wish to complete the suckling term, the cost of their food and clothing on equitable terms is upon the father of the child.] (Al-Baqarah 2:233) Also, the Prophet (s.a.w) advised us to give each child a name with a good meaning and be merciful towards them: "He is not one of us who does not have mercy for children and respect for our seniors". (At-Tirmidhi)

Spending on Children: When a Muslim spends on his family seeking reward for it from Allah (swt), it counts for him as Charity. Sahih Muslim: 1669

May Allah (swt) help us raise healthy children who follow the true path of Islam and become true lovers of Holy Prophet (s.a.w), Ameen.

POEM SECTION

The secret divine my ecstasy has taught
 I may convey if I have Gabriel's breath.

What can these stars tell me of my fate?
 They are lost themselves in the boundless firmament.

The total absorption of thought and vision is life,
 Scattered thought is selfhood's total death.

Pleasures of selfhood are a blessing of God,
 Who makes me lose my awareness of myself.

With a pure heart, a noble aim, a poignant soul.
 I care not for Solomon's wealth or Plato's thought.

The Prophet's 'Mairaj' has taught me that heaven
 Lies within the bounds of human reach.

This universe, perhaps, is yet incomplete,
 For I hear repeated sounds of "Be, And It Was."

Thy mind is ruled by the magic of the West,
 Thy cure lies in the Fire of Rumi's faith.

It is he who has given my eyes a blissful vision,
 It is he who has blessed my soul with light.
